Transportation Policy of RCS Early Learning Center

It is the policy of RCS Early Learning Center that children will be transported on the Riverside Christian School bus during the school year whenever possible. Professional bus drivers with appropriate licensing will be provided.

Should a bus not be available, children may be transported in private vehicles with prior written permission of parent/guardian. Copies of current driver's license and proof of current insurance must be on file in the RCS office. Insurance companies of private vehicle drivers will be notified.

Occasionally, an activity fee may be required to cover expenses of special field trips. Parent/Guardians will be notified prior to such events.

I have read and agree with the above policy. I grant the above named child permission to be transported by bus or private vehicle as stated. This permission is granted on condition that the provider is in compliance with the provision of WAC 170-155-165 Transportation.
